

Cascade County 4-H Award Descriptions

Memorial Awards

Danny Chinadle Memorial Award

This award will support one Cascade County 4-H member each year to assist in financing a non-livestock 4-H project. A $50 cash award will be awarded at Achievement Night. This award is available to a 4-H member of any age (no Cloverbuds), and members may receive the award only once. To receive the award, members must submit a 500 word narrative by the date that 4-H records are due in the Extension Office answering the following question: If you were to receive this memorial award, how would you spend the money on your non-livestock 4-H project and how will it assist you in attaining your 4-H project goal?

John Davis Memorial Award

The John Davis award will recognize up to two Cascade County 4-H members 16 4-H years or older each year. The winner(s) of this award must be a 4-Her in good standing that has

- Developed leadership talents and has worked toward achieving the broad objectives of character and effective citizenship
- Gained a broader knowledge of 4-H agriculture and/or home economics projects and activities, and their contribution to improving family and community living
- Learned to adapt and apply the latest practices and research findings in agriculture and/or home economics to everyday living
- Developed skills in those practices which make for more efficient and profitable 4-H project work
- Personally developed and instilled in others a pride and respect for 4-H work and its importance in the development of the individual, the family, the community, and the nation
- Applied all 4-H trainings and experience in choosing and preparing for a vocation

These criteria may be applied to a member's entire 4-H career. Members must write a 500-word narrative explaining how they meet the above criteria. The recipients' names will permanently be displayed on a John Davis Memorial Plaque in the County Extension Office, and the recipient will receive a personal gift of a belt buckle or other appropriate item from the Davis family.

Wendy Mauer Memorial Award

This award in memory of former 4-H member, Wendy Mauer, will be based on the premise that "Love is a Giving Thing." Recipients must be 14 years of age by October 1 of the current 4-H year. Up to two 4-H members will be awarded this award every year. Recipients will be awarded a $100.00 cash award at Achievement Night. Selection is based on information in the member's Record Book as well as a narrative of at least 500 words. The 500-word narrative must describe what "Love is a Giving Thing" means to you. Members should elaborate on their kindness, thoughtfulness, generosity, and compassion for others, perseverance in attaining goals, effort and making the most of one's ability, and efforts made to improve school, home, and community life in their narrative.

25 and 30-Year Leader Awards

Tammy Phelps Fresh Start Award

Criteria used in the selection of this award:

- Recipients can be any age, but must be a first year enrolled active 4-H member (does not include Cloverbud participation)
- Recipient must be enrolled in a minimum of two projects and have one or more fair entries from each project
- Recipient must attend 50% or more scheduled club meetings and participate in at least one community service event

A 500-word narrative describing the recipient's 4-H year successes and plans for the upcoming 4-H year must accompany the nomination. A $25.00 cash award will be presented to the recipient during Achievement Night.

Vicki Johnson Horsemanship Award

Criteria used in the selection of this award:

- Recipients must be 14 years or older by October 1 of the current 4-H year
- Recipients must have been enrolled in and completed at least 3 years of Horsemanship projects (i.e. Western, English, Colt-to-Maturity)
- Recipients must participate in at least 2 community service projects per year. These can be project related or non-project related

Two 250-word narratives are required for this award. The first narrative must tell about where the member started in the horse project, why they took the project, and where they are now regarding the project. The second narrative must tell how the member has developed through their horse experience and how it has helped the member grow as a person. A $25.00 cash award will be presented to the recipient during Achievement Night.

Brenda Byrnes Livestock Award

Criteria used in the selection of this award:

- Recipients must be 14 years or older by October 1 of the current 4-H year
- Recipients must be enrolled in a Livestock project
- Recipient must be an active participant in club, county, or state levels in contests and leadership opportunities
- Additional credit is given for participation in Communications activities

A 500-word narrative tying together all elements of the member's livestock and leadership activities together must accompany the nomination. A $25.00 cash award will be presented to the recipient during Achievement Night

Leann Budeski Photography Award

Criteria used in the selection of this award:

- Recipients can be any age, but must be enrolled in the Photography project
- Recipient Record Book must contain sample photos
- Recipient must exhibit photos at the fair
- Recipient must contribute to and help prepare club scrapbook
- Additional credit is given for giving a demonstration and/or speech about Photography, teaching other about photography, exhibiting photos elsewhere besides the State Fair, or submitting photos to a local newspaper.

A 500-word narrative describing the recipient's 4-H Photography project and highlighting any of the about additional credit items must accompany the nomination. A $25.00 gift card to a photo shop or $25.00 cash prize will be presented to the recipient during Achievement Night.

Rose Ballard Rabbit Award

Criteria used in the selection of this award:

- Recipients can be any age, but must be enrolled in the Rabbit project
- Recipients must compete in Rabbit Showmanship at the State Fair
- Special consideration will be given to those placing highest in the Showmanship contest at the State Fair

A 500-word narrative describing the recipient's 4-H Rabbit project, showmanship experience, and showmanship goals must accompany the nomination. One recipient will be selected from each age group (Senior, Intermediate, and Junior). A $25.00 gift certificate from North 40 Outfitters will be presented to the recipient(s) at Achievement Night.

Special Achievement Awards

All Special Achievement Award nominations must be accompanied by a 500-word narrative summarizing goals, achievements, and participation regarding each award for which the member is nominated. Nominations that are not accompanied by a narrative will not be considered. Recipients will be awarded a certificate and 4-H themed prize.

Outstanding 4-H Member Award

Recipients will have gained broad knowledge of 4-H projects and activities and their contributions to improving family and community living. Recipients will also have learned to adapt and apply the latest practices, research findings, knowledge, and skills from project work to everyday living and use their knowledge to promote and instill 4-H pride and respect for 4-H work and its importance in others. Recipients will also have demonstrated notable leadership skills.

Agriculture Trailblazer Award

Recipients will have completed projects in a broad range of agricultural areas and have used the information, knowledge, and skills developed in these 4-H projects to successfully integrate agricultural practices into everyday living. Recipients will have also demonstrated notable leadership skills.

4-H Community Citizenship Award

Recipients will have been an active citizen and member of a 4-H club and active in county, district, and state 4-H events. They have demonstrated leadership through holding club offices, learned to practice parliamentary procedure and successfully contributed to the success of a meeting. Recipients exhibit a higher standard of positive behavior as a citizen of family, club, school. And other community organizations and take an active role in planning, organizing, and carrying out community service work.

Heart for Health Award

Recipients will have learned and practiced the most effective management of personal health care, physically, mentally, and emotionally for self and for others while promoting an inclusive environment for others by advocating for a bully-free community.

Excellence in Leadership Award

Recipients will have developed and demonstrated leadership skills necessary to promote growth in other 4-H members, clubs, county, and state activities.

Excellence in Communications Award

Recipients will have learned and demonstrated the parts of an oral presentation and can effectively prepare, and present a talk, demonstration, oral reasons, speech, interview, etc. Recipients must also have shared knowledge and skills in public speaking with others and assisted them in developing the same skill as well as have made oral presentations to groups outside of 4-H.

Team Builder Award

Recipients will have learned and demonstrated the skills necessary to effectively conduct recreational activities for other members of the 4-H club, county, etc. They have also developed a broad knowledge of a variety of leisure tie activities and developed the skills to participate in and/or teach to others. Above all, recipients will practice and promote good sportsmanship in all activities.

Advocate for Safety Award

Recipients will have gained the knowledge to safely conduct 4-H project work and daily activities in a variety of areas. They will have taken the opportunity for leadership in teaching safety practices to others and understand the need for safety guidelines in all activities.